

Register for TNT Coach Access

The Team In Training community provides a private community just for coaches. The community gives coaches a place to gather and discuss training, fundrasing ideas and anything else related to your events.

In order to access this community you must be approved by National staff. If you are a current TNT Coach and would like to join the private coach community, please contact us at community@lls.org to request access. In your request please include your name, user name you registered with and the chapter you are associated with. Because access is granted on your account you must be registered before contacting us.

Sample Request Email

If you need help registering please refer to How to Register.

Once registered, authorized and logged in you will be able to see the TNT Coaches Community under Team In Training.

-  Team In Training
-  Alumni
-  Fundraising
-  Sports
-  Virtual TNT For those participating in Virtual TNT
-  TNT Coaches Private coaches only area <You will see this once authorized
-  Master The Shift

Please note that the authorizing your account is a manual process. Your request may take several days to be processed. You will receive a response via email once your account has been approved.